9:30 a.m. Arrive in Niagara Falls State Park.

Maid of the Mist

Maid of the mist is Niagara Falls viewing pleasure boat, from near the border of the rainbow bridge, the way the American falls and the Bridal Veil Falls, finally face the radian of more than 180 ° "horseshoe falls," experience is traffic from all over the world's largest and most spectacular waterfalls and environmental protection.

Goat Island & Luna Island

Goat Island (previously called Iris Island) is a small island in the Niagara River, in the middle of Niagara Falls between the Bridal Veil Falls and the Horseshoe Falls. The island is at the southwest corner of the City of Niagara Falls (and of Niagara County), New York, in the United States and is part of Niagara Falls State Park.

Goat Island has no residents, but is a destination for tourists visiting the falls on the U.S. side. It has several viewing points, including from Terrapin Point. Goat Island is connected to the U.S. mainland by two bridges that carry foot, car, and trackless train traffic, and to the smaller Luna Island (adjacent to the American Falls) by a pedestrian bridge. Goat Island is largely wooded and is interlaced with foot trails. The Cave of the Winds tour elevator provides access down to the foot of the falls.

Journey Behind the Falls

Journey behind the fall is an attraction in Niagara Falls, Ontario, Canada located in the Table Rock Centre beside the Canadian Horseshoe Falls. It is open year round and run by the Niagara Parks Commission.

Skylon Tower

The Skylon Tower, in Niagara Falls, Ontario, is an observation tower that overlooks both the American Falls, New York, and the larger Horseshoe Falls, Ontario, from the Canadian side of the Niagara River.

Memorial Clock Tower of Niagara-on-the-Lake

One of the most impressive and lasting memorials to be seen. This wonderful clock tower is the centre-piece of the beautiful downtown area of Niagara-on-the-Lake. The flowers and landscaping are second to none, this fitting tribute to the men of this region is a pleasant reminder of how remembrance and community spirit can work together to create something special.

Prince of Wales Hotel

The corner stone carved with the date 1864 can still be seen today. It was also named The Arcade Hotel, The Niagara House, and finally in 1901, The Prince of Wales Hotel. This name was chosen in honour of the 1901 visit of the Duke and Duchess of York, who were later crowned King George V and Queen Mary. The original Hotel was built on the corner of Picton and King Street. It was built of polychrome brick (having a basic red brick fabric with cream-coloured highlights). Its architectural style was that of the Second French Empire, seen most clearly in its mansard roof. The Hotel was purchased by the Wiens family in 1975 and remained for the next 22 years. The Wiens family extensively refurbished and expanded down King Street in one direction and down Picton in the other to include what we know now as The South Wing, The Studio and The Court Buildings. In March of 1997, Prince of Wales was added to the Vintage Hotel Properties. On November 8, 1998 the doors were closed to complete a monumental restoration project of the Hotel to include the true essence of Victorian charm. On July 1, 1999, Prince of Wales proudly reopened its doors to experience "Luxury Accommodation in the Heart of Wine Country".

Shaw Festival Theatre

A singular act of passion for theatre by Brian Doherty of Niagara-on-the-Lake and Calvin G Rand of Buffalo inspired the Shaw Festival into being. Its first season in 1962, held in the Assembly Room of the historic Court House, featured four performances each of Don Juan in Hell and Candida. The following year, the Shaw Festival Theatre Foundation was established as a non-profit organization.

The White Effect Dinner

Join us for a moonlight dinner, in typical Niagara-on-the-Lake celebratory fashion. An extensive wine list featuring some of the region's best VQA wines from local wineries, local craft beer and cider all paired with terrific live music. All that's missing is you in your summer whites. Organize a group or attend on your own. It will be a night to remember.

Wine Trip

When night falls, go to the small bar on the street to drink the town wine with good taste, with a little drunk back to the small hotel, feel the hotel bed, smell the antique wood home sent out by the light wood fragrance mixed with a light flower to sleep, is not a flavor. Niagara region has rich agricultural resources, unique geographical and climatic conditions for grape planting to provide unique conditions.
